Foreword

Each spring many young people leave Broadway High School to take their places in an adult world. Their names have been left on the school's history as their footprints have been left in its halls.

In this book we have tried to preserve a few of these footprints for you. May these memories remind you of many happy school days.

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1949 wish to dedicate this volume of

The REFLECTOR

MISS MINNIE MAY

who has been loyal, patient, co-operative, and a friend to all the students; who has sacrificed self-interest for others; and who has given much of her time for the betterment and progress of our school.

MR. J. FRANK HILLYARD

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE:

Believe in yourself with all your might. That is, believe that your destiny is inside of you, that there is a power within you which, if awakened, aroused, developed, and matched with honest effort, will not only make a noble man or woman of you, but will also make you successful and happy.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1949, being of sound mind and seeing our bedsides surrounded by friends and loved ones, do hereby now present this, our last will and testament.

Item I—To the Senior Class of 1950, we leave the Senior Room, it's contents and our best wishes for a happy and successful Senior year.

Item II—To the members of the faculty of our beloved school, who have so painstakingly guided us through our secondary education, we leave boundless appreciation for their untiring efforts in our behalf.

Item III—To the individuals listed below, we leave these tantalizing tidbits of personal glory!

To Dolly Armentrout, I, Shirley Borrer, will my desk just inside the door of the Senior Room, with hopes that she can "grin 'n bear" the accumulation of miscellaneous articles always placed thereon.

I, Jane Brown, do bequeath to Eleanor Williams my amazing ability to be a little late for school and hope she will have better excuses than I have had!

I, Yvonne Simmers, do will to Mary Kathryn Fulk my ability to get along in school without studying.

To Joyce Lantz, I Betty Jo Kline, do bequeath my job as Sports Editor on the REFLECTOR staff.

I, Alta Sue Turner, will my position in the band to Betty Sue Hoover, with hopes that she, too, will play in the All-State-Band.

To Betty McWilliams, I, Betty Crider, leave my distinctive sense of humor and my special brand of giggles.

I, Waldean Dove, bequeath to Wanda Good my golden hair and fair complexion, on the condition that she doesn't use them to steal my boy friend.

I, Louise Long, bequeath my winning personality and physical characteristics to Norva Lee Siever.

My scatter-brained ways and contagious chuckle, I, Elizabeth Ann Early, leave to Louise Roller.

I, Joan Donovan, will my talents as chief doodler of the '49 REFLECTOR to Janalee Sheetz.

To Dorothy Ann Early, I, Donna Kline, do bequeath my quiet ways and restful nature.

I, Merle Lantz, do bequeath my beautiful smile and my quiet but friendly manner to Anna Lucy Phillips.

I, Carl Spitzer, bequeath to Bobby Rhodes my talent in basketball with the best wishes for as much success as I have had.

I, Lula Crider, leave to Alva Phillips my rosy cheeks and blue eyes.

To Danny Spitzer, I, Gene Armentrout will my deep voice, and my skill in driving bus No. 30—the latter given to him only if he has steady nerves and an even temper.

I, Faye Spitzer, bequeath my old, worn-out chewing gum and my rare collection of absence slips to Norma Dove.

To Edwin Turner, I, Hugh Billhimer, leave my infectious laughter, my good nature, and my ability to get along with people.

I, Naomi Shoemaker, bequeath my conscientiousness and quiet ways to James Clutteur, providing he uses them to the best advantage of the class.

CLASS WILL

To Ray Billhimer, I, Julian Reid, leave the water pistol which I have used so much in fifth period English class, hoping he will develop good aim.

I, Chester Litten, will to George Trumbo my "frail" physique, along with a warning not to become too pleased with his new-found power.

I, Nita Reamer, leave my soft voice in Civics class, my basketball suit, and my desk so often occupied by Jennings to Alma Lee Pullins.

To Justin Halterman, I, Kale Barb, leave my "tough-guy" manner and my avid passion for English literature.

I, Bill Smith, bequeath the distinction of being the quietest boy in the Senior Class to Glenn Will (Reasons evident! ! !)

To Gerald Orebaugh, I, Helen Pullins, will my love for staying home.

I Fadene Smith, leave to Nancy Trumbo my position in the band with hopes that she can find as convenient a way of getting to rehearsals as I have had.

I, Harold Roller, leave to any Junior with ample brawn and no brain my position as mimeographer for the Communi-K.

I, Biedler Higgs bequeath to Jimmy Rhodes my abilities to argue in Chemistry and sleep during Civics classes.

I, Jennings Crider, will to Johnny Huffman myameleon-like qualities of being either good or bad.

To Idella Mongold, I, Peggy Dovel, do bequeath my small stature and my winning ways.

I, Iva Harpine, leave all my mysterious curlycues, my well-used Shorthand book and my unerring knack for finding the right words in my manual to Hilda Mitchell.

To Wanda Hinkle, I, Betty Lou Fike, do bequeath my skill in collecting ads, my "love" for writing English summaries, and my athletic abilities.

I, Lois May, will my sweet smile, my naturally curly hair, and my sunny disposition to Joy Andes.

To Ruby Showalter, I, Anna Kline, do bequeath my never-failing talent for blushing at the wrong time and giggling behind books in Shorthand class.

I, Clarene Sheetz, will to positively no one my interest in No. 20 of the boys' basketball team! !

To Howard Kline, I, John Litten, leave my interest in girls—especially my interest in one certain Junior girl.

To Louise Strickler, I, Marguerite Runion, will my culinary achievements with reminder that "the way to a man's heart is through his stomach"!

I, Edward Stayner, bequeath to Lester Whetzel my long legs and lack of ability to be quiet in English class.

I, Janet Wittig, leave to Jay Crider my weakness for tall, dark and handsome people.

To Lawrence Roller, I, Jo Ann Turner, will my frankness and my dramatic talents.

I, Virginia Lee Roadcap, do bequeath to Dorothy Biller my gift of gab and the late hours I've spent typing for the REFLECTOR.

To Russell Wittig, I, Flo Long, leave my love for telling tall tales.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Before the curtain falls on the last act of the life of Broadway High for the school year of 1949, let us look back to the year 1945, when we were Freshmen.

The years seem long ago when we, 76 strong, climbed two flights of stairs to the Freshman Girls' and Freshman Boys' Rooms. Enthusiasm ran high and we enjoyed our first year in high school under the guidance of Miss Dorothy Trumbo and Mrs. Harold Dellinger, our class sponsors. For our officers in this year of innocence and bliss we chose Betty Fike, President; George Trumbo, Vice President; Alta Sue Turner, Secretary; Yvonne Simmers, Treasurer.

In 1946 we took our second step toward the halls of knowledge and fame as Sophomores. We enjoyed our role as students, under the leadership of our advisor, Mrs. Fahrney. We began taking more interest in extra-curricular activities, leading all classes in various drives. At the end of the year we found ourselves passing into the Junior Class. Our high school careers were half over but we were all positive that the first half had been a big success.

We look upon the term 1947-48 with pride and satisfaction. Now we were "upper classmen". During the year we were active in the band, glee club, and literary activities. As the Annual Junior Play we presented, "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer," with Miss Lester, our sponsor, as director and Miss Myers as assistant director. We also think of the joy and excitement we received from giving the Senior Class of '48 a banquet, which is an annual affair.

We are Seniors. We have entered into the last and most important of our four high school years, with Mr. Phillips as our advisor. We presented as our class play, "Lena Rivers" with Miss May as director and Miss Trumbo assisting her.

We will be glad to graduate but we shall look back over the years spent in Broadway High School with pleasure.

As we go forth to broader fields of endeavor and to greater opportunities for self-improvement and service, we know that our teachers and principal will always have for us a feeling of sympathetic understanding. We are grateful to them for all that they have done for us and our wish is that they may never be disappointed in us.

The Broadway Chapter has forty-five members this year. Some of our activities this year are:

- Held picnic with F. H. A.
- Held Father-Son banquet with Timberville Chapter
- Took part in following contests: crop judging, shop, dairy, poultry, Degree Team and public speaking.
- All these contests are sponsored by the Rockingham Federation.

Last summer four members of our chapter, along with other Rockingham F. F. A. boys, spent four days in Washington. The boys visited many buildings in the Capitol. They spent one day at the Beltsville Experiment Station.

In October six members attended the Atlantic Rural Exposition in Richmond.

Sometimes it is the nature of a craft to create an unbreakable tie between itself and the worker in that field, a heart attachment equal to lifetime devotion. One familiar example is PRINTING. Once editor, once compositor, or pressman catches the spirit of the shop, the spell is seldom broken. Like the odor of a camp fire, or a whiff of salt air, the beloved tang of printer's ink, symbolical of a great profession, gets into your heart and soul. School Annuals, Magazines, Newspapers and Special Printing, all smack of it. It is an invisible link that binds all intelligence together. It is the stimulus for creation in business or romance. This craftsmanship, this devotion to service and alertness to business needs, has nourished and developed an enormous industrial vitality, and whichever way the course of the future runs, the printer will always find himself able to adapt his helpfulness to new opportunity.
